

Prohibited DEI & Instruction Policies & Procedures

Notice: This webpage provides access to district policies and procedures adopted in compliance with Texas Education Code §§11.005, 28.0022, and 39.008.

Overview

Under Texas Education Code \(TEC\) §39.008, as established by Senate Bill (SB) 12 of the 89th Texas Legislature, school districts are required to adopt and implement policies that restate and comply with TEC §§11.005 (Prohibition on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Duties) and 28.0022 (Certain Instructional Requirements and Prohibitions).

Under TEC §11.005, Bellevue ISD (BISD) is prohibited from assigning diversity, equity, and inclusion duties to any person. District employees, contractors, and volunteers are also prohibited from engaging in diversity, equity, and inclusion duties at, for, or on behalf of the district. BISD has adopted policies and procedures for appropriate discipline, including termination, for individuals who intentionally or knowingly engage in or assign such duties.

Under TEC §28.0022, BISD employees and contractors are prohibited from providing instruction or activities related to certain controversial topics and are subject to additional instructional requirements and prohibitions established by law.

Compliance with these laws requires the district to provide a physical and electronic copy of related policies and procedures to employees and contractors.

Description of Required Policies and Procedures
